

Welcome

Scholantis Websites and Portals allow schools and entire districts to effortlessly communicate and collaborate. Whether you're an administrator, staff member, teacher, student or parent, there's something for you.

The docs site is a constantly growing and evolving collection of articles with instructions on how to do things.

User Guides

This section is updated regularly as new features are added. We've been undertaking an overhaul of this area so if you find an error please let us know.
